

A Soul Reading for Jennifer

- The very first thing I was drawn to in your reading was a gemstone called "Tiger's Eye." Tiger's Eye enhances one's ability to understand and mediate between the two sides of an issue. It can help one find the middle way of balance, the trademark of a true spiritual warrior.

- I also sense a ghost (earthbound spirit) around you by the name of "Regina" - have you encountered her yet? She likes to stomp around a lot!

- Your energy feels so pleasant, fulfilling, calm and bountiful - I could sit with it for a long time and just rejuvenate...

- Now a dachshund breaks in on things and suggests that I pull a fairy card for you (this is kind of unusual actually - I've never had a dog pop in on a reading before!)

The card I pull for you is from my Fairy Herbal Healing deck and is called "Fennel." The Fairy Herbal deck consists of eighty oracle cards that I created from my Fairy Herbal paintings. Their energy is light, ethereal, airy, and sparkly plus based in the green world, so add in some earthiness and green energy as well.

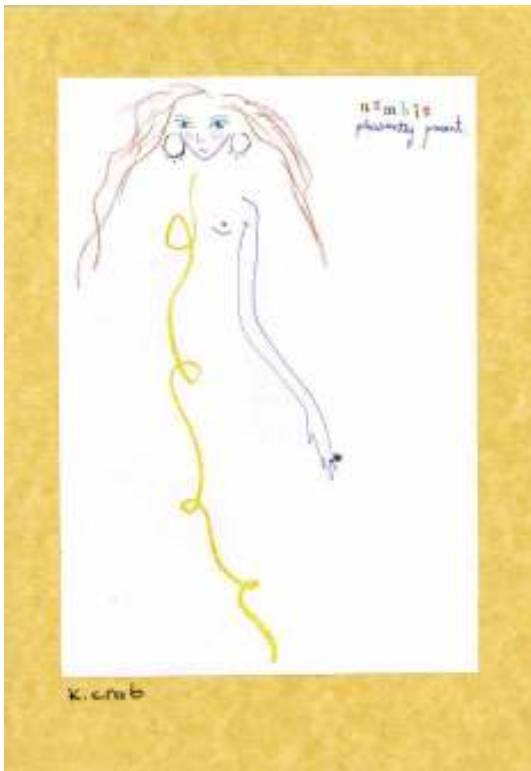

Fennel has the ability to protect one's home and family. It was also used by the Saxons and is useful for those who practice meditation. Taking Fennel as a magical tonic will bring the ability to have a long life, face danger and be strong in the face of adversity. It is also said to help maintain fertility and virility.

- Now I am sensing you becoming a bit impatient and anxious that we move along.
- The next stone I suggest that you work with is called Black Tourmaline. It will help you center, stay calm, ground and focus.

When Black Tourmaline appears it is encouraging you to undertake a ritual of purification. Perhaps you are holding onto old patterns that no longer serve you. When you purify your self and release worries and resentments, you are making room in your life for spiritual gifts to be received.

- Perhaps it's this card and what it represents, or the next card I'm about to pull that is causing you some irritation, but I'm also being shown a man, someone you "can't stand."
- We'll put him aside for now as you are asking me about your future.

This next card I pull is from my Lefty Oracle deck and will take a look 6 months into the future and it is called "Nambia pleasantly present". The Lefty Oracle deck consists of 50 oracle cards that I created from my Lefty paintings. Their energy is playful, light, edgy, ethereal and quirky.

Because the Lefty cards were all drawn with my non-dominant left hand, the 'intuitive' hand (controlled by my right brain) they do not come with any kind of written interpretation. That part is up to you. Go with your intuition and trust whatever images, thoughts or feelings come up in relation to this card. It's time to trust yourself and put your intuition to work - Go!

- So I ask you this question, "Where do you want to be 6 months from now?"
- I sense that you don't want to be stuck here. So I ask you, "What part of yourself are you cutting off?" Well you need to do it and give yourself 3 years to develop it.

The next question you ask me is, "What is it?"

So I pull a card called "The Aries Goddess" from my Goddess Zodiac deck. The Goddess Zodiac deck consists of 38 oracle cards that were created from my Goddess Zodiac paintings. Their energy is deep, intense, poetic, and feminine.

Aries embodies spring fire; she is erotic and independent, a primal rebel with revolutionary thought. Aries asks us to wake up and remember who we truly are, even if it bothers those we love or work for.

- You need to stay with it...focused and inspired. I see you strong and shining brightly, like the Sun. Your inspiration helps others in a really practical way ie. women that are down and out. Your spirit and strength are put to good use. You are secure and doing a great job.

I am ending your reading by sending you a prayer for good works and feisty determination. (Plus swimming whenever you can - the blue water is good for you!)

Many Sparkly Blessings to you, Jennifer!

About your reading: An intuitive reading will often contain some information that is correct and some that is not. My readings are usually quite accurate, but if anything I say feels wrong to you, it probably is. You know your own information, intuitive and otherwise better than anyone else, so please don't give that power away to me. You are here to get a different perspective – not the "right" perspective. Anyone who tells you that they know more about you than you know yourself, or that they are 100% accurate is someone to be very wary of. A reading is never set in stone, your free will is always the final determinant.

About stones and crystals: I recently discovered an online source for ethically hand-mined gemstones and crystals – <http://www.Kacha-Stones.com> If you are not able to purchase the stones I have suggested, you can always envision the color identified with the stone or work from a picture of the stone. To cleanse your crystals (before and after working with them) it's a good idea to hold them under running water (unless they're super delicate) or smudge them with sage, or leave them out in the moonlight (sunlight too, if they're not fadeable.) Any one of these methods will work :)

How to work with stones and crystals: The best way to work with a stone is to buy a raw or tumbled stone at a local new age store, gem and mineral museum shop or online. You can also work from a photograph or with the color associated with the stone, by visualizing it in your mind's eye. You can wear stones as jewelry, or you can carry one in your pocket. You can sleep with a stone under your pillow or hold it in your hand and just sit quietly in a contemplative or meditative way. You can also hold a stone up to your third eye (between your eyebrows) and listen for what it has to say to you. I call this 'speaking with stones' because I believe that crystals are how the Angels communicate with us.
